How to Request Paid Family Leave to provide assistance when a family member is deployed

Before you apply

Complete your forms and attach required documentation

Complete the Request for Paid Family Leave (Form PFL-1)

- Fill out your section, make a copy, and give the form to your employer to fill out Part B.
- Your employer is required to return Form PFL-1 to you within three business days. If there is a delay, you do not have to wait to proceed. Send the Form PFL-1 that you have filled out, along with the rest of your request package, directly to the insurance carrier.

Complete Form PFL-5 and attach the required documentation. (See next page for details.)

Submit to your employer's insurance carrier

You must submit Mail or fax your Form PFL-1, Form PFL-5, and required documentation to your employer's insurance carrier. your completed request package To find out who your employer's insurance carrier is, you can: within 30 days Look for the Paid Family Leave poster in your workplace.

- Ask your employer.
- Use the employer coverage search application on wcb.ny.gov to look up your employer's Paid Family Leave insurance carrier.

If you cannot find your employer's insurance carrier, call the Paid Family Leave Helpline for assistance: (844) 337-6303 (Monday through Friday, 8:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m.)

Please do NOT submit your request package to the NYS Workers' Compensation Board.

It is YOUR responsibility to submit the forms to the insurance carrier. It is NOT your employer's responsibility.

ASSISTING

Important to know

In most cases, the insurance carrier must pay or deny benefits within 18 days of receiving your completed request or your first day of leave, whichever is later. Your request cannot be considered incomplete solely because your employer did not fill out Part B of Form PFL-1 within three business days.

If the carrier denies or fails to timely pay your benefits, or you have any other claim-related dispute, you may request to have the carrier's actions reviewed. More information can be found at nyspfla.com.

Complaints about employer discrimination or retaliation are resolved by a Workers' Compensation Board Law Judge after a hearing. If you believe that your employer has discriminated or retaliated against you for taking or requesting Paid Family Leave, visit PaidFamilyLeave.ny.gov or contact (844) 337-6303.

Eligibility

- You can take job-protected, paid time off to assist when a family member is deployed abroad on active military service. You can take Paid Family Leave for the same reasons you can take military-related leave under the federal Family and Medical Leave Act (FMLA), which may include:
 - Short-notice military deployment
 - Military events, which may include official ceremonies or informational briefings related to the active duty
 - Military member's Rest and Recuperation
 - Military member's Counseling
 - Post-deployment activities, which may include arrival ceremonies and reintegration events
 - Making financial/legal arrangements
 - Making child care arrangements for the military member's child
- The family members you can take leave to assist are your:
 - spouse
- parent/stepparent
- domestic partner
- parent-in-law
- child/stepchild

- Most employees who are employed in New York State for private employers are covered under Paid Family Leave.
 - Full-time employees: If you regularly work 20 or more hours per week for a covered employer, you are eligible after 26 consecutive weeks of employment with your employer.
 - Part-time employees: If you regularly work fewer than 20 hours per week for a covered employer, you are eligible after working 175 days for your employer, which do not need to be consecutive
- Non-represented public employees may be covered if their employer has voluntarily opted in to provide the benefit. Union-represented public employees will only be covered if the benefit has been negotiated through collective bargaining.
- Citizenship and/or immigration status is not a factor in employee eligibility.
- If you believe you are eligible, you can apply for Paid Family Leave and the insurance carrier will make a determination.
- If you have questions about eligibility rules, call the PFL Helpline at (844) 337-6303.

Required Documentation

You will need to verify your family member's service with one of the following:

- Covered active duty orders.
- A letter from the military unit documenting impending call or order to covered duty.
- Documentation of military leave signed by the approval authority for the military member's Rest and Recuperation.

If leave is requested to meet with a third party, you must provide documentation of the meeting that includes the following:

- The name, address and contact information of the individual or entity with whom you are meeting.
- A description of the meeting.

The last page of Form PFL-5 has a template you can use to document these meetings.

REMEMBER: It is YOUR responsibility to submit the forms to the insurance carrier. It is NOT your employer's responsibility.

Request For Paid Family Leave (Form PFL-1) Instructions

- To request PFL, the employee requesting PFL must complete Part A of the Request For Paid Family Leave (Form PFL-1). All items on the form are required unless noted as optional. The employee then provides the form to the employer to complete Part B.
- The employer completes Part B of the Request For Paid Family Leave (Form PFL-1) and returns it to the employee within three days.
- Additional forms are required depending on the type of leave being requested. The employee requesting leave is responsible for the completion of these forms.
- The employee submits the completed Request For Paid Family Leave (Form PFL-1) with the required additional form to the employer's PFL insurance carrier listed on Part B of Request For Paid Family Leave (Form PFL-1). The employee should retain a copy of each submitted form for their records.

PART A - EMPLOYEE INFORMATION (to be completed by the employee)

The employee requesting PFL must complete all required information.

Paid Family Leave (PFL) Request (to be completed by the employee)

Question 12: A child is defined as a biological, adopted, or foster son or daughter, a stepson or stepdaughter, a legal ward, a son or daughter of a domestic partner, or the person to whom the employee stands in loco parentis. A parent is defined as a biological, foster, or adoptive parent, parent-in-law, a stepparent, a legal guardian, or other person who stood in loco parentis to the employee when the employee was a child.

Questions 13: If dates are "Continuous", the employee must provide the start and end dates of the requested PFL. These dates should be the actual dates that the PFL will begin and end. If uncertain, estimate the start and end dates and indicate "Dates are estimated". If dates are "Periodic", enter the dates PFL will be taken. Please be as specific as possible. If the dates are unknown or estimated.

indicate "Dates are estimated".

If dates are estimated, the PFL carrier may require you to submit a request for payment after the PFL day is taken. Payment for approved claims will be due as soon as possible but in no event more than 18 days from the date of the completed request.

Question 14: If the employee is submitting the PFL request to their employer with less than 30 days' advance notice from the start date of the PFL, the employee must explain why 30 days' notice could not be given. If the explanation will not fit in the space provided on the form, enter "See Attached" and add an attachment with the explanation. Be sure to include the employee's full name and their date of birth at the top of the attachment.

Employment Information (to be completed by the employee)

Question 16: Enter the date of hire to the best of the employee's recollection. If it has been more than a year since the date of hire, entering the year in which employment started is sufficient.

Question 18: Enter the best estimate of average gross weekly wage. Include only the wages earned from the employer listed on this request form. The gross weekly wage is the total weekly pay - including overtime, tips, bonuses and commissions - before any deductions are made by the employer, such as federal and state taxes. If the employer is not able to supply this information, the employee can calculate their gross weekly wage as follows:

Step 1: Add all gross wages received (before any deductions) over the last eight weeks prior to the start of PFL, including overtime and tips earned. (See Step 3 for instructions for calculating bonuses and/or commissions.)

Step 2: Divide the gross wages calculated in step one by eight (or the number of weeks worked if less than eight) to calculate the average weekly wage.

Step 3: If the employee received bonuses and/or commissions during the 52 weeks preceding PFL, add the prorated weekly amount to the average weekly wage. To determine the prorated weekly amount, add all bonuses/commissions earned in the preceding 52 weeks and then divide by 52.

Example of a gross weekly wage calculation:

Week 1 - Gross wage including overtime		$550
Week 2 - Gross wage		$500
Week 3 - Gross wage		$500
Week 4 - Gross wage		$500
Week 5 - Gross wage		$500
Week 6 - Gross wage		$500
Week 7 - Gross wage, including overtime		$600
Week 8 - Gross wage, including overtime	+	$550
Total =	-	$4,200
Divide by 8	÷	8
Average Weekly Wage =	-	$525
Bonus earned in preceding 52 weeks		$2,600
Divide by 52	÷	52
Prorated Weekly Bonus =	-	$50

Please note that the employer is also required to provide this information in Part B of the Request For Paid Family Leave (Form PFL-1).

If you are pre-submitting form: Indicate if the employee is pre-submitting their PFL request. Pre-submitting is defined as submitting the application in advance of an upcoming qualifying event, with certain required information missing due to the information being unknown at the time of the submitting. If pre-submitting is permitted by the carrier or self-insured employer, the missing information must be supplied as soon as it is known. Benefits cannot be determined until all of the required information is provided.

The PFL insurance carrier or self-insured employer will provide the employee a notice within five days which 1) states the claim is pending; 2) identifies what information is missing; 3) instructs how to submit the missing information. Once all information is supplied, the PFL insurance carrier or self-insured employer has 18 days to pay or deny the claim.

If the carrier or self-insured employer does not permit presubmitting, the carrier or self-insured employer must return the Request for Paid Family Leave within five days to the employee with an explanation that the claim should be resubmitted when all information is available.

Employee signs and dates, before giving this form to their employer to complete Part B.

PART B - EMPLOYER INFORMATION (to be completed by the employer)

The employer of the employee requesting PFL must complete all information in Part B.

Question 2: If a Social Security Number is used for the Federal Employer Identification Number (FEIN), enter the Social Security Number.

Question 3: Enter the employer's Standard Industrial Classification (SIC) Code. Contact your carrier if you don't know your SIC code.

Question 8: The employee occupation code can be found at: www.bls.gov/soc/2018/major_groups.htm

Question 9: Enter the wages earned by the employee during the last eight weeks preceding the PFL start date. The gross amount paid is the employee's gross weekly pay, including any overtime and tips earned for that week, plus the weekly prorated amount of any bonus or commission received during the preceding 52 weeks. (For detailed steps, see Question 18 starting on page 1 of the instructions.) Calculate the gross average weekly wage by adding up the gross amounts paid, and then divide by eight (or number of weeks worked if less than eight).

Question 10: Failure to select "Yes" for requesting reimbursement from the insurance carrier, will result in a waiver of the right to reimbursement.

Question 11a: 'Disability' refers to NYS statutory required disability. If the answer is "none," enter a "0" for total weeks and days in Question 12b.

Question 11b: The maximum number of weeks available for NYS statutory disability and PFL in any 52 week period is 26 weeks. Specify the total number of weeks, as well as the number of additional days if the leave includes a partial week, taken for NYS statutory disability and PFL during the preceding 52 weeks.

Question 13, 14 & 15: Enter the Paid Family Leave or Disability/PFL insurance carrier's name, address and PFL policy number. If this employer is self-insured, enter the name and address of where the PFL request should be submitted for processing.

Affirmation employee is eligible for PFL: An employee who regularly works 20 hours or more per week must have been in employment for at least 26 consecutive weeks. An employee who regularly works less than 20 hours per week must have worked 175 days.

Employer signs and dates, and then returns to the employee requesting PFL within three business days.

Be sure to complete the appropriate additional PFL form(s) based on the type of PFL leave being requested.

Military Qualifying Event (Form PFL-5) Instructions

If an employee is requesting PFL because of a family member's covered active military duty or impending covered active duty, the employee must submit the Military Qualifying Event (Form PFL-5) with the Request For Paid Family Leave (Form PFL-1).

The employee must identify the family member, provide a copy of the member's covered active duty orders or impending active duty orders, and describe the reason leave is being requested.

MILITARY QUALIFYING EVENT (to be completed by the employee)

The employee requesting PFL must complete all applicable requested information.

Employee enters their name, date of birth, other last names, if any, under which they have worked, Social Security or Taxpayer Identification Number (TIN) number, and mailing address at the top of page 1.

Employee enters their name and date of birth at the top of page 2.

Questions 1-5: Enter the military member's information, and indicate the military member's relationship to the employee.

Question 5: A child is defined as a biological, adopted, or foster son or daughter, a stepson or stepdaughter, a legal ward, a son or daughter of a domestic partner, or the person to whom the employee stands in loco parentis. A parent is defined as a biological, foster, or adoptive parent, parent-in-law, a stepparent, a legal guardian, or other person who stood in loco parentis to the employee when the employee was a child.

Question 6: Enter dates of expected military covered active duty.

Question 7: Documentation that shows that the military member is on covered active duty or has been notified of an impending call or order to covered active duty is required and must be attached to this form. Select the type of documentation that is attached from the list below.

Required documentation includes one of the following:

- · Covered active duty orders; OR
- · Letter from the military unit documenting impending call or order to covered duty; OR
- Documentation of military leave signed by the approving authority for military member's Rest and Recuperation.

Qualifying Reason for Leave (to be completed by the employee)

Question 8: Explain the need for PFL because of the Military Qualifying Event. For example: "My spouse was just called on short notice to covered active duty status, and will be deployed to (country) in five days. I need to take PFL to be with them and make arrangements for while they are away on active duty." If the explanation will not fit in the space provided on the form, enter "See Attached" and add an attachment with the explanation. Be sure to include the employee's full name, date of birth, other last names, if any, under which they have worked, Social Security or Taxpayer Identification Number (TIN) number, and mailing address at the top of the attachment.

Question 9: Include one or more of the qualifying supporting documents:

- Meeting announcement for informational briefing sponsored by the military; or
- Document(s) confirming an appointment with a school official, doctor, attorney or financial advisor; or
- Copy of a bill for services for the handling of legal or financial affairs.
