The terms used in this Fair Processing Notice relate to the Information Commissioner's Office guidance.

Who are We?

Arch Insurance (UK) Limited which is part of the Arch Insurance group ("Arch"). Arch is the Data Controller of the information You provide Us and is registered with the Information Commissioner's Office for the products and services We provide to You.

We may need to request and collect sensitive personal information such as details of convictions or medical history that are necessary for providing You with the product, service or for processing a claim.

We only collect and process sensitive personal data where it is critical for the delivery of a product or service and without which the product or service cannot be provided. We will therefore not seek explicit consent to process this information as the processing is legitimised by its criticality to the service provision. If You object to use of this information then We will be unable to offer You the product or service requested.

How do We use Your personal information?

We are fully committed to the regulations set out by Ofcom and follow strict processes to ensure We comply with them.

To ensure confidentiality and security of the information We hold, We may need to request personal information and ask security questions to satisfy ourselves that You are who You say You are.

We may aggregate information and statistics on website usage or for developing new and existing products and services, and We may also provide this information to third parties. These statistics will not include information that can be used to identify any individual.

To help Us prevent financial crime, Your details may be submitted to fraud prevention agencies and other organisations where Your records may be searched, including the Claims and Underwriting Exchange (CUE) and the Motor Insurers Anti-Fraud and Theft Register (MIAFTR).

In addition to companies within the Arch Insurance group, third parties (for example insurers or loss adjustors) deliver some of Our products or provide all or part of the service requested by You. In these instances, while the information You provide will be disclosed to these companies, it will only be used for the provision and administration of the service provided (for example verification of any quote given to You or claims processing, underwriting and pricing purposes or to maintain management information for analysis).

This may also include conducting a search with a credit reference bureau or contacting other firms involved in financial management regarding payment.

The data We collect about You may be transferred to, and stored at, a destination outside of the European Economic Area ("EEA"). It may also be processed by staff operating outside of the EEA who work for Us or for one of Our suppliers. ### How long do We keep Your information for?

We will not keep Your personal information longer than is necessary for the purpose for which it was provided unless We are required by law or have other legitimate reasons to keep it for longer (for example if necessary for any legal proceedings).

We will normally keep information for no more than 6 years after termination or cancellation of a product, contract or service We provide. In certain cases, We will keep Your information for longer, particularly where a product includes liability insurances or types of insurance for which a claim could potentially be made by You or a third party at a future date, even after Your contract with Us has ended.

Under data protection law You have the right to change or withdraw Your consent and to request details of any personal data that We hold about You.

Where We have no legitimate reason to continue to hold Your information, You have the right to be forgotten.

The Contract of Insurance and the Underwriters

This Policy is underwritten by Arch Insurance (UK) Limited and certain other insurers (hereinafter called the 'Underwriters').

We will provide the insurance described in this Policy against the events set out in the operative Sections (subject to the terms described) for the Period of Insurance shown in the Schedule and any subsequent period for which You shall pay and We shall agree to accept the premium.

IMPORTANT

This Policy is a legal contract between You and Us and designed to be as easy to understand as possible. You must make a fair presentation of the risk to Us at inception, renewal and variation of the Policy.

Your Schedule, Policy Wording and any endorsements shall be considered one legal document.

It is important that You read all Your documents carefully and let Your insurance agent know immediately if the Policy does not meet Your requirements or if any information is inaccurate or incomplete. If any changes are required this may result in changes to the terms and conditions of the Policy or a refusal to provide cover

Your obligations under the Policy

The Policy imposes certain obligations upon You which if not complied with may invalidate this insurance or a claim.

Some of these obligations are expressed to be Conditions or General Conditions. These are extremely important. If you are in breach of any of these obligations at the time of a loss We may have no obligation to pay any claim for that loss. However, if a Condition or General Condition is intended to reduce the risk of a loss of a particular kind at a particular location or at a particular time, We will not rely on the breach of that Condition or General Condition to exclude limit or discharge Our liability if the breach could not have increased the risk of the loss which actually occurred, in the circumstances in which it occurred

Steps to be taken if you cannot comply

If You are unable to comply with any Condition or General Condition, You should contact Us as soon as reasonably possible through Your insurance agent. We will decide whether We might be prepared to agree a variation in the Policy.

All Conditions and General Conditions remain effective unless You receive written confirmation of a variation from Us through Your insurance agent.

You should keep a written record (including copies of letters) of any information You give Us or Your insurance agent at inception renewal or making variation to this Policy.

An Underwriter is not jointly liable for any liability of any other that may underwrite this contract.

Although reference is made at various points in this Policy to "this contract" in the singular, where circumstances so require this should be read as a reference to contracts in the plural.

Conditions applying to this Section

  - a. On receiving a claim, if legal representation is necessary, DAS will appoint a Preferred law firm as the Insured person's Appointed representative to deal with the Insured person's claim. They will try to settle an Insured person's claim by negotiation without having to go to court.
  - b. If the appointed Preferred law firm cannot negotiate settlement of the Insured person's claim and it is necessary to go to court and legal proceedings are issued or there is a conflict of interest, then the Insured person may choose a law firm to act as the Appointed representative.
  - c. If the Insured person chooses a law firm as their Appointed representative who is not a Preferred law firm, DAS will give the Insured person's choice of law firm the opportunity to act on the same terms as a Preferred law firm. However if they refuse to act on this basis, the most DAS will pay is the amount DAS would have paid if they had agreed to the DAS Standard Terms of Appointment. The amount DAS will pay a law firm (where acting as the Appointed representative) is currently £100 per hour. This amount may vary from time to time.
  - d. The Appointed representative must co-operate with DAS at all times and must keep DAS up to date with the progress of the claim.
  - a. An Insured person must co-operate fully with DAS and the Appointed representative.
  - b. An Insured person must give the Appointed representative any instructions that DAS ask an Insured person to.
3.
  - a. An Insured person must tell DAS if anyone offers to settle a claim. An Insured person must not negotiate or agree to a settlement without DAS' written consent.
  - b. If an Insured person does not accept a reasonable offer to settle a claim, DAS may refuse to pay further Costs and expenses.
  - c. DAS may decide to pay an Insured person the reasonable value of the Insured person's claim, instead of starting or continuing legal action. In these circumstances an Insured person must allow DAS to take over and pursue or settle any claim on behalf of an Insured person. An Insured person must also allow DAS to pursue at their own expense and for their own benefit, any claim for compensation against any other person and an Insured person must give DAS all the information and help DAS need to do so.

  - a. An Insured person must instruct the Appointed representative to have Costs and expenses taxed, assessed or audited if DAS ask for this.
  - b. An Insured person must take every step to recover Costs and expenses and court attendance expenses that DAS have to pay and must pay DAS any amounts that are recovered.
5. If the Appointed representative refuses to continue acting for an Insured person with good reason, or if an Insured person dismisses the Appointed representative without good reason, the cover DAS provide will end immediately, unless DAS agree to appoint another Appointed representative.
6. If an Insured person settles or withdraws a claim without DAS' agreement, or does not give suitable instructions to the Appointed representative, DAS can withdraw cover and will be entitled to reclaim from an Insured person any Costs and expenses DAS has paid.
7. If there is a disagreement about the handling of a claim and it is not resolved through DAS' internal complaints procedure the Financial Ombudsman Service may be able to help. This is a free arbitration service for eligible complaints. (Details available from www.financial-ombudsman.org.uk) If the dispute is not covered by the Financial Ombudsman Service there is a separate arbitration process available. The arbitrator will be a jointly agreed barrister, solicitor or other suitably qualified person. If there is a disagreement over the choice of arbitrator, DAS will ask the Chartered Institute of Arbitrators to decide. The arbitrator will decide who will pay the costs of the arbitration. For example, costs may be split between the parties or one party may pay all the costs.
8. If there is a disagreement between an Insured person and DAS on the merits of the claim or proceedings, or on a legal principle, DAS may suggest the Insured person obtains at their own expense an opinion on the matter from an independent and appropriate expert. The expert must be approved in advance by DAS and the cost expressly agreed in writing between the Insured person and DAS. Subject to this DAS will pay the cost of getting the opinion if the expert's opinion indicates that it is more likely than not that the Insured person will recover damages (or obtain any other legal remedy that DAS have agreed to) or make a successful defence. This does not affect the Insured person's rights under Policy condition 7.
9. An Insured person must:
  - a. keep to the terms and conditions of this section
  - b. take reasonable steps to avoid and prevent claims
  - c. take reasonable steps to avoid incurring unnecessary costs
  - d. send everything DAS asks for, in writing, and
  - e. report to DAS full and factual details of any claim as soon as possible and give DAS any information DAS need.
10. DAS will, at DAS' discretion, void this section (make it invalid) from the date of claim, or alleged claim, and/or DAS will not pay the claim if:
  - a. a claim an Insured person has made to obtain benefit under this policy is fraudulent or intentionally exaggerated, or
  - b. a false declaration or statement is made in support of a claim.
11. Apart from DAS, an Insured person is the only person who may enforce all or any part of this policy and the rights and interests arising from or connected with it. This means that the Contracts (Rights of Third Parties) Act 1999 does not apply to this section in relation to any third-party rights or interest.
12. If any claim covered under this section is also covered by another policy, or would have been covered if this section did not exist, DAS will only pay their share of the claim even if the other insurer refuses the claim.
13. This section is governed by the law that applies in the part of the United Kingdom, Channel Islands or Isle of Man where the Insured person normally lives. Otherwise, the law of England and Wales applies.

All Acts of Parliament mentioned in this section include equivalent laws in Scotland, Northern Ireland, the Isle of Man and the Channel Islands as appropriate.
