

Why Choose an Arch Private Plan

New Jersey employers are mandated by the state to provide New Jersey Temporary Disability Benefits (NJ TDI) for off-the-job injuries, illnesses, or other medical conditions including pregnancy.

Employers are automatically enrolled into a state plan for this coverage. However, employers can choose to “opt out” of the state plan and work with a private insurance company, like Arch Insurance Company (“Arch Insurance”). There are several benefits to taking this step.

Comparing Arch Insurance to a State-Run Program

	ARCH INSURANCE	NJ STATE PLAN
IMPLEMENTATION	Arch works with brokers and employers to provide a consultative / custom approach to starting up your Arch private plan.	NJ state programs are implemented the same way for all employers.
SUPPORT	Arch has a dedicated customer support team to assist employers and employees. This team knows the nuances of each employer and can respond appropriately. On average, Arch customer service answers your call within 45 seconds.	A call center staff may manage all employers within the state, with no inside knowledge to your particular company.
CLAIM TURNAROUND TIME & PAYMENT	Arch processes 93% of claims within 5 days of receipt. Arch issues checks weekly with a direct deposit option	With the NJ state plan, 93% of claims are processed within 35 days.* State Plan issues debit card payments
REPORTING	Arch offers employers online access to our robust reporting system to generate on demand real-time claim and tax reports.	NJ state issues tax activity reports as payments are issued and after the close of the year.
CLAIMS PROCESS	If needed, claims can be submitted in individual pieces rather than all portions of the claim form at once.	NJ state programs may require all of the claim forms to be completed and submitted together.
